DATES TO MAY 3.

Impeachment Proceedings—Stanbery's Speech.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Mr. Evarts concluded his argument when the Senate took a recess. On reassembling, Mr. Stanbery rose, and after a few introductory remarks in which he referred to the feeble state of his health, he said he felt impelled by irresistible impulse to lift his voice in this just cause. He then proceeded with his argument. He said: Mr. Chief Justice and Senators, it is the habit of the advocate to magnify his case, but this case speaks for itself. For the first time in our political existence the three great departments of our Government are brought upon the scene together; the House of Representatives as accuser, the President of the United States as the accused, the Judicial department represented by its head in the person of the Chief Justice, and the Senate as the tribunal to hear the accusation and defense, and to render the final judgment. The Constitution has anticipated that so extreme a remedy as this might be necessary even in the case of the highest officer of the Government. It was seen that it was a dangerous power to give to one department to be used against the other; yet it was anticipated that an emergency might arise in which nothing but such power could be exercised to preserve the Republic. Happily for the eighty years of our political existence which have passed, no such emergency has hitherto arisen during that time. We have witnessed the fiercest contests of party again and again—the Executive and Legislative departments have arisen in open and bitter antagonism—a favorite legislative policy has more than once been defeated by the obstinate and determined resistance to the President. Frequently the gravest and most important issues we ever had or are ever likely to have of Presidential policy and legislative policy, have stood in direct antagonism. During all this time this fearful power was in the hands of the legislative department, and more than once resort to it had been advised by extreme party men as a sure remedy for party purposes. But happily that evil hitherto has not come upon us. What new and unheard of conduct by the President has at last made resort to this extreme measure unavoidable? What Presidential acts have happened so flagrant that all just men of all parties are ready to say, the time has come, the mischief has been committed, the evil is at work, so enormous and pressing that in the last year of his term of office it is not safe to await the coming action of the people? If such a case has happened, all honorable and just men of all parties would say amen; but if on the contrary, it should appear that this fearful power has at last been perverted to the use of party; if it appears that at last the bad advice often before given by bad men of that party has found acceptance, this great tribunal of justice, now regarded with so much awe, will speedily come to be considered a monstrous sham. Mr. Stanbery then proceeded to analyze the articles of impeachment, showing that of the statutes of the United States which were alleged to have been violated, three of them provided penalties for their violation, and declaring such an offense the highest misdemeanor. He then proceeded to argue the articles in detail. The court adjourned before the argument was concluded.

Steamboat Explosion

BUFFALO, May 2.—The propeller Cushman, while moving out of the harbor to-day, exploded its boiler, killing eleven and wounding three persons. The vessel is a complete wreck. It contained 20,000 bushels of wheat. One deck hand was blown completely over a large elevator, 150 feet high.

Miscellaneous.

NEW YORK, May 2.—The Glenham Woolen Mills, Poughkeepsie, have stopped working, owing to a strike of the weavers—seventy females—against 10 per cent. reduction in their wages.

CHICAGO, May 1.—A Tribune's special says that the Georgia Constitution is ratified by 9,000 majority. The Republicans have elected the Governor by 7,000 majority, and secured a working majority in the Legislature.

NEW YORK, May 1.—Owing to the fact that whisky is selling at less than the Government tax in this city, the revenue agents have ordered the seizure and closing up of all the distilleries here. The order will be enforced to-day. There are no distilleries in operation in New York city.

CHICAGO, May 1.—A New Orleans dispatch says that Gen. Buchanan has issued an order forbidding the discharge of freedmen on account of participation in the election, which action will not be tolerated.

NEW YORK, May 1.—The Herald prints the letter from Judge Black to the President, withdrawing as counsel, owing to the President's determination to do nothing in the Alta Vela case. He says he never asked the President to decide on the matter until he had expressed the opinion that the title was legal and just. Black says Seward's little finger, it appears, is thicker than the law, he and the thieves whose interests he has guarded so faithfully, are welcome to the short-lived victory they have won.

From Canada.

OTTAWA, May 2.—In the House of Commons last night, McDougall of Nova Scotia, moved the repeal of the confederation resolution. He delivered a speech on the state of feeling in Nova Scotia, and intimated that if the people of the Province were not freed from the confederation, bloodshed might be the result. The effort to get the House into Committee of the Whole on the resolution was vigorously opposed, and after a long debate, the motion was lost.

An amendment concerning the principles of confederation, in strong terms, was carried by a large majority.

Havana News.

HAVANA, April 30.—Two hundred families have been rendered houseless by the burning of the town of Jaruco. Seven lives were lost.

A report is in circulation that Minister Romero has been sent to the United States to depreciate the bonds of the Mexican Republic and that a clique has been formed to buy in these bonds at reduced rates.

Advices from Jamaica state that the revenue has been increased $11,000 within the last quarter. Treasurer Robinson has sailed for England, suspected of having committed heavy frauds on the exchequer.

By the explosion of a locomotive boiler at Villa Minna depot yesterday, 14 persons were wounded.

A Havana dispatch says that Gen. Piqual has suspended the negotiations with the United States for the sale of the bay of Samana, owing to Cabral being deposed. He has sailed for Turk's Island to join others to foment a revolution in St. Domingo against Baez.

Mexican Affairs.

The Herald's special advices from the City of Mexico are to the 20th. Congress has finally passed condemnation on the concessions in favor of the English company building the Vera Cruz and Mexico Railroad.

The rebellion of Gen. Negrete is still unsuppressed. It is reported that he was raising troops in the North.

Canales is reported as about to make common cause with Negrete. The settlement of the troubles with the Yuma authorities is not expected to be permanent. Several officers have been arrested, among whom is Colonel Myers, late of the United States army.

Minister Romero is about to publish a letter to General Banks, as well as some private official documents connected with the State Department. The rumors of Romero's resignation are renewed.

A communication from Gen. O. G. Ortega, who is in prison, in Monterey, signed as President ad interim has been published. He urges his claim to the title and complains of his treatment. The communication was first discussed in secret and afterwards in open session of Congress, after which it was referred to a special committee, who at once shelved the document.

Congress has passed the appropriation of $30,000 for the payment of the foreign debt, in the shape of English convention bonds, and $30,000 for the Spanish bonds.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

LONDON, May 2.—In the debate in the House of Commons last night, Gladstone's resolution for the abolition of the Irish church was continued to a late hour. Some of the prominent members spoke. Lord Elcho opposed the resolution. Mr. Gladstone closed the debate on the liberal side with a powerful speech against the continuance of the Irish church. He also defended himself for his course, denying that he had any part or lot in the projects either of the ritualists or Roman Catholics. Disraeli followed in a bitter speech, calling the scheme one of confiscation and violence, to which the people of England would never consent. A division then took place on the first resolution, which was adopted, by 65 majority. Disraeli said the ministry needed time to confer upon what course it would take, and the House adjourned to Monday. The press to-day generally consider the decision decisive. Mr. Disraeli has gone to Osborne to consult with the Queen.

FROM THE NORTH

Fire in Victoria.

VICTORIA, May 2.—About one o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the residence of Arthur Bunster, Johnson street. A strong wind was blowing at the time and before the engines could reach the spot the flames had extended to the brewery and grist mill adjoining, which, together with the residence were totally destroyed. For some time other buildings in the neighborhood were in great danger. The Presbyterian Church, in the next block, was on fire in three places and narrowly escaped being consumed. Mr. Bunster's loss on his residence, brewery and mill will exceed $45,000. None of the property was insured.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 2.—Mrs. Washington Wright, better known to the public by her literary pseudonyme of Topsy Turvey, died yesterday at San Jose.

The sailing of the next steamer for China has been delayed to the 2d of June.

The Nevada will sail for Panama on the 5th instant, and the Golden City on the 6th inst.

A private telegram from Boise City to-day, states that there are not men enough to work the placer mines in the basin and that several hundred can find immediate employment there at $6 and $7 per day.

The improved tone noted in mining stocks yesterday is maintained to-day, nearly all descriptions showing an advance.

Produce Market.

Flour—the market still droops under the large stock and a restrictive export demand. Superfine bbl sks 2d 100 lbs, $6 25@6 50; qr sks, $6 50@6 75; extra bbl sks, $7@7 25; extra qr sks, $7 25@7 50.

Wheat—market dull at $2 30@2 40 ₩ 100 lbs, a decline of 5c from yesterday.

Barley—market is still dull, at $1 45@1 55 ₩ 100 lbs as a nominal range.

Oats—dull and nominal at $2 25@2 60 ₩ 100 pounds.

Potatoes—we quote the best descriptions at $1 10@1 30 ₩ 100 lbs.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 3.—No eastern news was received to-day.

Sixteen thousand four hundred and eighty dollars so far have been collected towards liquidating the debt of St. Mary's Cathedral of this city.

The reputed discovery of silver on Temescal ranch, Alameda county, near Oakland, is confirmed by Mr. Brayal, proprietor of the ground. The extent or value of the mine as yet, is uncertain.

No news of interest this morning.

The stopping and garrotting of persons on the streets at a late hour of the night, is becoming frequent. The city is at present infested with a gang of robbers and thieves.

Shipping.

Arrived May 1st—bark Helen W. Almy from Columbia river; ship Commodore, 134 days from Boston; barkentine Occident, 7½ days from Columbia river, produce and lumber.

Sailed, May 2d—brig T. W. Lucas, Port Ludlow; brig Crimea, Port Ludlow.

May 3.—Steamer Continental.

West Point and Disloyalty

The "disloyalty of West Point has been favorite theme of a great many ignorant or evil disposed persons. It has been persisted in without the slightest regard for truth or sense, and is likely to be kept up in the face of overwhelming refutation. From the elaborate work of General Cullum, the "Biographical Register" of the Military Academy, it appears that, at the outbreak of the rebellion, 1,245 graduates of the Academy were supposed to be living, 820 being still in the army and 425 in civil life. Of the 820 in the army, only 184, or about one fifth, joined in the rebellion, while 626, or nearly four fifths, remained true to the Union—10 taking neither side. Of the 425 in the civil life, but 99, or less than one fourth were known to have joined the rebels, while 280, or nearly three times the latter number, remained loyal. The careers of 44 were unknown, but the proportion remains, doubtless, as already indicated. In fine, of the 1,245 graduates of the Academy living at the outbreak of the rebellion less than one fourth joined in the rebellion, and over three fourths were true to the Union. We find in addition that of the 280 loyal graduates in civil life, 110 re-entered the service, though half of them were beyond the meridian of life, and that of the remaining 170, all under 45 years old became officers of the regular or volunteer armies, except 39, who, from disability and other causes, did not take an "active part," that of all the loyal sons of West Point who served in the rebellion, a greater portion than one in three were wounded in battle, and one in five, (an astonishing record) laid down their lives in the same sacred cause. It appears also that of the 350 graduates born in or appointed from slave territory who were in the military service at the outbreak of the rebellion, no less than 162 remained loyal, while 168 joined the rebels. In other words, while in the colleges, in Congress, in the country, loyalty was so rare an exception among Southern men that probably not one in ten exhibited it, one half of the Southern graduates of the Academy remained true to the Union and fought in its behalf. An examination of the colleges would prove that they have nothing to gain from a comparison of facts relating to the loyalty and services of the students. It is about time that the disloyalty of West Point ceased to be talked about.

THE KUKLUX KLAN IN WASHINGTON.—Colonel Forney has telegraphed the following to his Philadelphia Press:

WASHINGTON, April 9, 1868.

The new assassination, long threatened, and all the while secretly organized, begins at last to select its victims. Hardly a day passes that we do not hear of a Union man murdered by the "white gentlemen" of the South. This hell-born cabal has its lodges in every Southern State, and by its midnight meetings, oaths, masks, loaded weapons, secret circulars, and open violence, has established a reign of terror nearly equal to that during the rebellion. You have had the particulars of the murder of Colonel Ashburn, at his home in Georgia, at 2 o'clock on the morning of the 30th of March, by some of the murderers belonging to those societies.

At last the assassins have established their camps in Washington, and within a few hours anonymous warnings have been served upon most of the leading Republicans in Congress. Judge Wade had several, while Messrs. Butler, Bingham, Stevens and other Managers of Impeachment have been duly admonished to hold themselves in readiness for sudden doom. I have seen some of these missives, with their cabalistic letters, signs and sentiments, and find them in exact accordance with the reports of the messages sent by the rebel fiends to the devoted patriots further South.

You will recollect that these were the rebel arguments before they were exchanged for open war against the Government. Mr. Lincoln was admonished to prepare for death four years in advance of his sacrifice, and just before he fell he was in regular receipt of written threats. Latterly the system has become general. Brick Pomeroy said two months ago, that another good Democratic Booth was ready to take the life of another Republican obstacle. There is not now an old rebel community that cannot boast of its K. K. Kuklux lodges, with its members sworn to murder all Union men, white and black, who may not fly to the South or stay and vote against the Radicals.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC RECLAIMERS.—Over in Nevada the rebels and Radical Democrats have established a secret political organization known as the "National Democratic Reclaimers." Only the true blue are eligible. The Enterprise by some means has gained possession of the secrets of this Kuklux Klan, and publishes them in full, remarking:

The purposes of the organization are, to repudiate the national debt by repealing all laws for the creation of revenues to pay either the principal or interest, or, failing in that, to place the Federal and rebel debt on the same basis—that is, to pay both or repudiate both; to repeal all the legislation of the past seven years; to return the blacks to slavery in the South; in short, to apologize to the rebel States for having made war upon them, and make atonement, by permitting them to return to the Union without conditions or pledges, and by paying their war debt or repudiating our own. This is really what the leaders of the Democratic party are secretly struggling for, but they are too politic to blazon the disgraceful doctrine upon their banners, and therefore impart their purposes, under an obligation of silence, to such as may be safely trusted with the inner secrets of the organization. Hence the establishment of this league of "National Democratic Reclaimers," of which there are doubtless two or three dens in Storey county. The charter for the Pine Grove wigwam was sent from Carson, and we take it for granted that Pine Grove was not the first point in the State to receive a charter.

REMARKABLE DISCOVERY.—A Chili journal relates that at the summit of the Cordillera of Dona Ana the priest Don Jose Sagues, following an ancient track, has after many difficulties, discovered a tomb or deposit of remarkable and curious objects. The rarefaction of the air at such an altitude, which exceeds 10,000 feet, has scarcely allowed the workmen to make a small excavation; from which have been taken a huanaco made of bone and ornamented with gold, a silver figure weighing three pounds, and another representing an Indian at the time of the conquest. They were all found under a kind of shed made of wood and covered with stones, charcoal and huanaco wool in a perfect state of preservation. Other articles in use by the Indians of less consequence, are also spoken of. It is believed that the Indians at the time of the conquest hid a great treasure in the place in question.

The total effective force of British troops is set down at 111,[illegible] of whom 10,650 are regulars, [illegible] 16,185 yeomanry cavalry, and 1[illegible],[illegible] volunteers. One-half of these, or nearly a quarter of a million of disciplined men, would be available for home defence on a sudden emergency.

Letter from Astoria.

ASTORIA, May 2d, 1868.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Times have been unusually lively in this town this week in business, politics and pleasure. The steamer Ajax stopped over Sunday and Monday waiting for good weather to go to sea, she being very heavily laden. This gave an opportunity to the passengers of that vessel to step ashore and take a stroll through our embryo streets, alleys, lanes and parks, and to the members and visitors of the "Grant Club" to hear a good speech from a Mr. McClellan of Salem, who happened to be one of the weather-bound passengers, and who, on being called for by some one in the club who knew his ability, after some hesitation, came forward and delivered one of the most thorough—radical, even—Republican-Union speeches, in the choicest language and most graceful style of any that has been delivered here since Col. Baker spoke in this place in May, 1860. Mr. McClellan was [illegible] very appropriately, and enthusiastically again and again, for "twenty times. Other good speeches were also delivered that evening before the club.

On Tuesday the Circuit Court held its semi-annual term—which is always an occasion for a gathering from the remotest parts of the county—and as had been previously announced, Messrs. A. C. Gibbs, Union candidate, and J. H. Reed, Democratic candidate, for Prosecuting Attorney of this Judicial District, at the ensuing election, addressed the people in the afternoon. Mr. Reed opened the debate with a speech an hour long, when Gov. Gibbs followed an hour and a half, when Mr. Reed closed in a half hour speech. Unluckily the steamer John L. Stephens came in and fired her gun just in the middle of the Governor's speech—when most of the Democrats had a [illegible] excuse for retreating from the Governor's [illegible] rough and unwelcome portraiture of the [illegible] and traitorous conduct of the Democratic party and its leaders during the late "unpleasantness," alias pro-slavery rebellion. It was [illegible], however, to hear the said Democrats [illegible] and cursing as they went away about the [illegible] being in attendance while Reed and Gibbs [illegible]—thereby confining the [illegible] to something like decency [illegible] The [illegible] tired at the close of the Governor's [illegible], and Reed had full sway in his closing remarks, which consisted of the coarsest anecdotes and retailing of reports, which he claimed to have heard on the street, but which, when refuted [illegible] by several in the audience, he said he did not believe himself, though he thought fit to report them in a public speech.

Every unprejudiced mind [illegible] that Gov. Gibbs' statement of the [illegible] past and present ought to satisfy all honest Democrats that the Democratic party is not now, and has not been the last eight years, a friend of our country's best interests, or of the mass of the people.

I understand the Democrats are claiming an increase of votes, relatively, upon former votes, but the vote in this county will be about as in former elections—that is, two-thirds or three-fourths Union and "Grant."

SOJOURNER.

PROFESSOR GOLDWIN SMITH ON AMERICAN POLITICS.—Goldwin Smith has written a long letter to the Manchester (Eng.) Examiner upon American politics. Taking into consideration the struggle of the rebellion, its [illegible], and then looking at the present condition of the country, he thinks "reason will [illegible] that free institutions in America have stood a strain such as no institutions have ever stood before, and that political [illegible] has found a new and more solid basis for social order than ever force or hereditary right presented, in the [illegible] and law loving instincts of an enfranchised and educated people." Of General Grant he says:

The course of events [illegible] still to point to the Presidency of General Grant. In revolutions men live fast and characters change rapidly. It would be presumptuous for one not on the spot to attempt to pronounce a judgment on individual claims, or, indeed, on any details of the present situation. But all that I heard of Gen. Grant when I was in the country led me to believe that he combined the highest qualities of a soldier with the best instincts of a citizen, that he was high-minded, unselfish, wise, devoted to the republic, thoroughly worthy of the confidence of the people, and though not a trained statesman, likely to make a good head of the nation in peace as in war. Wholly pacific, indeed, his task would not, it is to be feared, at first be, for he would have to control disorder in the South, if not disaffection, by military means. His [illegible] and chivalry in dealing with his [illegible] are a pledge that he would not be a tool of vindictive policy, while the party for which he conquered have little reason to fear that the [illegible] General will be false to his own laurels. It would be a happy thing, indeed, for the nation if he could be raised to power, not as the mere candidate of a party, but by a really national vote. He might then withdraw all parties from the [illegible] positions into which they have been thrust, act as a mediator between them all, settle the wavering balance of the Constitution, and turn to the repression of legislative corruption, to [illegible] and other much-needed reforms of a practical kind, the energies now expended in a virtual protraction of the civil war.

JUDGE CHASE AND POLITICAL PARTIES.—Mr. W. N. Hudson, editor of the Cleveland Leader, spent a morning hour with Mr. Chase one day last week, and thus speaks of the interview [illegible]

"The talk with the Chief Justice was mainly upon current political topics. It was remarked that his name had been of late urged by Democrats in connection with the Presidency, on which Mr. Chase said: "I wish that all men of all parties would leave my name alone in connection with a Presidential nomination. I do not seek the Presidency." He went on to say that, as a Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, he had necessarily to abandon party politics. When he went on that bench he assumed an obligation, recognized in his oath, but anterior and superior to it, to do impartial justice under the Constitution and laws of the United States. He could not be a party judge, or allow himself to be swayed by partisan feeling, without violating that oath. And he regretted that newspapers of both parties had connected some of his recent actions with party or perverse feeling. A few words on personal topics closed the conversation, and I left the presence of the man who, if [illegible] were the rule of choice, would be President of the United States, but who, like Hamilton, Clay and Webster, is too great a man to fill the first place in the gift of the American people."

HOW CHICAGO BEAT ST. LOUIS.—It begins to look very much as if Chicago has cut St. Louis out of the "mountain trade," which last year was worth $500,000,000. By the completion of seventy miles of the railroad from Sioux City to St. Johns, (which seventy miles, though running southeastwardly, were subsidized by Government as a branch of the Pacific Railroad), Chicago has direct communication with Sioux City. The distance by rail from Chicago to Sioux City is 540 miles. The distance from St. Louis to Sioux City by way of the Missouri river, is a thousand miles, and the navigation thereof is difficult and hazardous. As 540 miles of railroad is to a thousand miles of treacherous river, so is Chicago to St. Louis in the prospect of annually selling $5,000,000 of goods to Montana. Chicago is a lucky town. New York and New England capital flows profusely in its interest, and Uncle Sam builds railroads from east to west and west to east to connect with its main trans-[illegible] artery, charging the bill to the Pacific Railroad page in the ledger.

Reader did you know that every column of a newspaper contained from ten to twenty thousand distinct pieces of metal, the misplacing of any one of which would cause a blunder, or typographical error. With this curious fact before you do you not wonder at the general accuracy of newspapers? Knowing this to be the fact you will be more disposed we hope to excuse rather than magnify errors of the press.

Jeff Davis and his backers are said to be filled with apprehensions lest the Republicans violate the Constitution.

The Suffrage Question.

A Copperhead paper observes that "it is a little singular that in spite of the very strong determination of the Northern States to impose negro suffrage on the South, not one of them has voted as yet to accept it themselves." There is nothing singular about this matter. Negro suffrage has never yet been affirmatively adopted as an issue by the Union party. Its adoption at the South was effected not on principle, but simply as a necessary expedient of reconstruction. For months the question was anxiously debated in Congress, and it was only under the spur of necessity,—the supposed necessity of adopting some measure whereby the rebel States could be reorganized,—that it was incorporated in the military plan. Very many earnest Republicans in and out of Congress [illegible], and still oppose it on principle, and only gave [illegible] to it in the reconstruction acts upon the conviction that it would possibly work an abandonment of Southern obstinacy, and lead to a restoration of the Union on a basis which [illegible] keep red-handed rebels out of Congress and prevent them from obtaining control of the country. For this feature of the reconstruction acts the South is entirely responsible. Many a long and strenuous effort was made to induce them to accept the terms first proposed. But they rejected those terms with contempt, and the present plan necessarily followed. This is a truth of history. Negro suffrage has not been adopted as a national issue by the Union party, as is [illegible] by the elections which have been held in [illegible], Michigan, Minnesota, and other States. In those States, though negro suffrage was defeated, the Republicans obtained large majorities on the [illegible] vote. This fact shows the real state of the matter. The Northern people have never pronounced against the reconstruction policy of Congress, though it includes negro suffrage, while they have expressed their unwillingness to adopt it as a general principle. Not a Northern State has yet been carried by the Democrats on a direct issue against Congressional reconstruction. The trifling Copperhead successes of last year (which were confined to two or three or States) were the result of [illegible]. The temper of the people has been sufficiently tested to show that we can easily carry the Presidential election on the issue which the Copperheads make against reconstruction on the Congressional plan.

[illegible] and Politics.

Ben Hayden made a "speech" at this place on Saturday evening. The political knowledge and general [illegible] displayed by the orator very well illustrate the average of the knowledge and intelligence of his party. For instance, in speaking of the Tenure of office law he remarked that it was singular that such men as Webster, Calhoun and Clay, who were versed in every line and letter of the Constitution, had never found in that instrument any warrant for such an act. Now every [illegible] of common information knows that all these men and other great statesmen besides, more than thirty years ago wanted a tenure of office law [illegible], and argued in the Senate in favor of such a [illegible]. They held that it would not only be [illegible] to pass such an act, but that its passage was demanded by the gravest considerations of public policy. For the benefit of Democratic ignoramuses, we published some articles a few weeks ago setting forth the views of Webster and others on this question. As another specimen of Democratic learning, we may allude to a remark in Sunday's Herald to the effect that if the fourteenth [illegible] to the Constitution is ratified it will give [illegible] the suffrage in Oregon, as negroes will then be citizens and "the ballot is the first privilege of citizenship!" Could there be a more contemptible exhibition of ignorance than is [illegible] in this specimen Democratic "argument?" In the first place all intelligent people know that the fourteenth amendment provides expressly for negro disfranchisement, and in the next place nobody but a Democrat ever believed that the suffrage and citizenship are identical. If "the ballot is the first privilege of citizenship," perhaps some Democratic pundit will explain why women are not allowed to vote. The "[illegible]" intimated that Mr. Greeley is traveling through the State proclaiming this astonishing doctrine in regard to citizenship and the suffrage. If such be the case he and Ben Hayden should put their learning together and "bust" in [illegible] hereafter.

The following shows the sales of merchandise in the principal cities of the Union for the year 1868:

Before the late election in Connecticut the New York World said that Gov. English was "spending freely his large private fortune for campaign purposes," i. e., he was importing people from New York into his numerous factories for the purpose of keeping up the "great Democratic reaction" on election day. Here's a text for the Copperhead journals which have had so much to say about the corrupt practices of the "Radicals" in spending money in elections.

THE GREAT CLUB.—Owing to feeble health and consequent inability to perform the duties of the position, Mr. Dyer has resigned the Presidency of the Great Club. A meeting of the Club was held on Saturday evening, and Thos. Fraser was elected President. The Club propose to keep things going lively till after the Union victory in June.

Gov. Woods' [illegible].

Gov. Woods [illegible] that he will be here to speak on Tuesday evening. The use of Oro Fino Hall has been tendered by its proprietors for the occasion. A very able speech may be expected, and a request is hereby made for everybody, including ladies, to be in attendance.

On Saturday next Gov. Woods will address the people on political topics at Corvallis. He intends to make a tour through Lane, Linn, Polk, Yamhill and Clackamas, addressing the people of each county. Having rested sufficiently from his overland journey, he proposes to enter the canvass in earnest.

"Irish Traitors."

Such is the appellation given by the Oregon Herald to those Irish American citizens whose convictions of political duty cause them to oppose the "Democratic" party.

A prominent Irish American citizen of Portland recently published an eloquent letter urging his countrymen to support the party which has been true the country and which has saved it from dismemberment. The letter was earnest and manly, temperate in tone and entirely free from partisan rancor. While the writer spoke earnestly in behalf of the Union party, he made no accusations against the so-called "Democracy." The author of this letter is one of the oldest and most respected of our citizens; no man can say a word against his personal integrity. His character in all the relations of life, both public and private, stands above reproach. This man is assailed by the paper we have named with the vilest invective and most scurrilous abuse, and others of his countrymen who agree with him in opinion and purpose are assailed in the same outrageous manner. And for what? Because they choose to exercise a freeman's privilege of acting, politically, as they think fit and right; because they decline to submit to the dictation of selfish "Democratic" demagogues who think they have an imprescriptible right to what they denominate the "Irish vote," and who hold it to be "treason" for any voter of Irish descent, as well as for adopted citizens of whatever nationality, to refuse to follow submissively at the beck of their self-appointed political masters of the "Democratic" party. So then it comes to this, that the "Democratic" party, thinking it owns the "Irish vote," must assail and vilify those who dare to assert their political independence and act as freemen.

Just think for a moment who the creature is who talks of "Irish traitors." A beggarly, characterless outcast from every community which he has ever offended with his presence, who comes here to traduce citizens of known reputation and established character. A secessionist, who exerted all his feeble powers in the cause of traitors, and was only restrained by his cowardice from being a fighting traitor against his country, as he was a traitor to her in heart, in sympathy, in purpose. A pretty specimen, this, to stigmatize as "traitors" those whose only offense is their refusal to follow with blind obedience the standard of the party with which every actual traitor on the continent affiliates!

It is no new thing for "Democratic" organs to denounce those Irishmen as traitors, who act with the Union party. Not long since it was their habit to apply this epithet to those who drew their swords for their adopted country against the rebel friends of the "Democratic" party. When General Meagher was appointed Governor of Montana the State Rights Democrat, the principal Copperhead paper in Oregon, embraced the opportunity to denounce "mercenary Irishmen" in language similar to that which the Herald now employs, and to condemn Meagher as a recreant who had sold himself for a commission in the Abolition army, and who had just received a civil appointment as a further reward for his treachery. Though true to his adopted country, he had been a "traitor" to the Democratic party, and the offence should never be forgiven.

A renewed effort is being made to prejudice our citizens of foreign birth against the Union party by talking about the Know Nothing organization. This is not a happy expedient. Many of the most prominent Democratic politicians were leading Know Nothings. The present Democratic leader in Congress, James Brooks of New York, was one of the chiefs of the Know Nothing organization. His paper, the New York Express, was their principal organ. In Know Nothing times when the Democratic party had an overwhelming majority in California, J. Neely Johnson, Know Nothing candidate, was elected Governor of that State. Large numbers of Democrats in Oregon joined the organization. In all the States its numbers were largely recruited from that party. It is well known that the present Democratic candidate for State Senator in this county was a Know Nothing in California. About a dozen years ago John Henry Smith, to whose praises the Herald devotes a leading editorial, and who, it is understood, will be Deputy Sheriff of this county in case of the occurrence of so improbable an event as the election of his principal, ran as the Know Nothing candidate for Sheriff of Washington county, and, we should add, was very righteously defeated. So many Democrats in Oregon were joining the Know Nothings that the leading politicians of that party who looked to "Democracy" as their only hope of advancement, took the alarm, and in 1855 the Legislature adopted the viva voce system of voting, for the purpose, as Delazon Smith stated it, "of smoking Democrats out of the Know Nothing wigwam." The truth is the Know Nothing party was recruited from all parties, and fully as much from the Democratic party as from any other. It had a brief existence, as every party deserves to have which is based on narrow, intolerant ideas. It was proslavery in sentiment, and this with its other proscriptive doctrines, rendered it impossible for it to obtain the hearty support of the Northern Republican masses. The Know Nothings had a much greater proportionate strength at the South than at the North, and in 1856, more than half the votes which its candidate for President received were thrown by the slave States. The party, in fact, had its origin in the Democratic South, and its fundamental idea was opposition to the immigration of foreigners, whose labor would be injurious to the "peculiar institution" which the Southern Democracy so fondly cherished. No party at the North could be made to stand upon so narrow a basis, and the only reason why the Northern "Democracy" did not espouse the Know Nothing cause en masse, was the absolute certainty that they would thereby lose the votes of all adopted citizens and fall into a hopeless minority. The Democratic organs of this State can illy afford to revive the discussion about Know Nothingism. Too many men who are prominently connected with that party were themselves members of the "dark lantern" society.

Mass Convention in Umatilla County.

The people's Mass Convention met pursuant to a call at Goodwin's Hotel, Upper Umatilla, on Monday, April 27th, 1868, and elected J. N. Perkins Chairman, and Thomas Robbins Secretary. The following ticket was nominated by acclamation with the exception of Harvey Robbins, who, having declared himself an independent candidate for Sheriff, the Convention endorsed the act and placed his name on the ticket:

Representatives—D. Drumheller (D) and C. Stetson, (R.)
Sheriff—Harvey Robbins, (D).
Clerk—Joseph Pinkham, (R)
County Judge—R. B. Morford, (D)
County Commissioners—H. Schooling, (D), and O. F. Clark, (D).
Assessor—E. Gilliam, (R)
Treasurer—Jesse Failing, (R).
School Superintendent—H. W. Swerney, (D)
Surveyor—Jno. Orr, (R).
Coroner—S. Teal, (R).

THOS. ROBBINS, Secretary.

Democratic Antecedents.

[From the Sacramento Union.]

The history of the Democratic party for the last thirty or forty years has been one of shame, not one of glory, to the nation. It tells only of measures which were injurious—of a steadfast alliance with slavery, of war and bloodshed for the sake of spreading the area of human bondage, of the repeal of compromises and the violation of the Constitution in order to desecrate free soil with it, of offers to expend hundreds of millions of dollars to buy slaves and slave territory. The life and activity of the party gradually became absorbed in this business of fostering, extending and perpetuating an institution at deadly war with our fundamental principles, and a constant burden and eating ulcer upon our industrial development. What beneficial public measure has been passed in that time of which the Democratic party can claim the credit? What great men have been produced who belonged to that party at all, or who were not driven out of it, or who have not become traitors? The course of the party has been palpably a downward, ruinous career. It displayed neither wise statesmanship nor economy of administration. If the country prospered, nevertheless, it was due in part to occasional relief from the rule of that party, but it was due far more to material causes which happily that party could not control. The vast development of this country during the past half century is due to canals, railroads, telegraphs, and other means of intercourse and communication which have been invented within the time. Our present expansion of population, increase of wealth and development of States could not have been attained without these. Did the Democratic party do anything to give us these? Did it ever favor internal improvements as a public policy? Has science, invention, or general intelligence prevailed especially in that party? Have the sections where it was strongest been in the front rank of industrial progress? Where are its certificates of having anything to do with the prosperity to be found? Nowhere but in the imaginations of its deluded followers. It has always been a burden, a check, a disgrace to American civilization. Its corruptions, its vulgar demagogury, its degradation of the suffrage, served to repulse the better part of the people from politics, till the had almost made complete the ruin of the republic, when all who loved their country had to run in haste and with one accord to save it from the clutches of Democratic traitors. That is the past, which is painted to us as so glorious! That is the statesmanship we are invited to try again! That is the party which alone can be trusted! Well, the argument it offers in favor of the great Democratic party is not remarkably strong, but we accept it as the strongest the case will admit of. That party certainly offers us nothing better for the future than it gave us in the past; it wants professedly to repeat the same old story, but we cannot afford now as well as formerly to let it play with fire at the public expense.

Connecticut Election.

[From the Chicago Tribune.]

The election in Connecticut may be summed up in a few words. The Republicans have gained a United States Senator and the Democrats have not lost a Governor. The Seymour faction of the Copperhead party have demonstrated the unfitness of Pendleton for a Presidential nomination, by carrying one of the doubtful States on the issue of paying the bonds in gold and refusing to water the currency. To accomplish this result Belmont, English & Co., poured out their money profusely. They naturalized 5,000 new voters and then carried the State by 1,400 majority.

They have won a victory which will infallibly secure the defeat of Pendleton in the Fourth of July Convention. If they had failed to secure the re-election of English, the cry would have been raised against the "bloated bondholders" with such fierceness and fury that it would have been irresistible in the convention. But now the tables are turned completely. Mr. Pendleton is killed dead by the vote of Monday in Connecticut, and while we do not affect any satisfaction at the re-election of Governor English, we are free to say that the result is not without its consoling features. We should view with real alarm a national contest in which one party should make an issue in favor of repudiation of the debt, or inflation of the currency.

So far as the immediate fruits of victory are concerned, the Republicans have achieved a most important success in carrying the Legislature, and thereby putting an end to the renegade Dixon. The gain made by the Democrats was all centred in New Haven, where it told on the election of Governor, but had no effect on the political complexion of the legislature. Dixon's term continues until the 4th of March, 1869, after which he will be heard no more. Being a man of feeble intellect and no moral preceptions, his extinguishment will be perpetual. It is probable that Governor Buckingham will be his successor in the Senate.

The Round Table has an article recommending the re-establishment of the duello as a means of modifying the personalities of journalism. It thinks the Tribune would have a very different tone "if Mr. Greeley knew that the immediate effect of one of his delicate personal attacks would be an invitation to a quiet walk the next morning under the trees of Weehawken or Staten Island, an invitation that he could not possibly shirk, and which might possibly end in very uncomfortable consequences." To this line of reasoning the Commercial Advertiser rejoins: "The duello makes journalism what it is in the South, because it permits any desperado to become an utterly irresponsible editor, by virtue of his reputation as a dead shot, or a reckless wielder of the bowie knife. And it not only prevents a conscientious, independent writer from expressing his opinions boldly, but enables any one having a fancied grievance to call the editor to account therefor in a personal encounter. Under the duello system, the first representative sent from the Pacific coast to Congress was shot dead by a prominent State official, who chose to take offense at a humorous article, in which he figured conspicuously.

On Dickens' last journey from Portland to Boston, a bright little girl of eleven sought an acquaintance with him on the cars. The novelist received her kindly, and she expressed her approbation of his writings in flattering terms, saying, "I have read all your works, and like them very much."

"Ah," said Dickens, "permit me to inquire which you like best?"

"David Copperfield," answered the little girl.

"Good, good," exclaimed Dickens; "so do I!"

The National Intelligencer has been converted into a humorist Journal. Here is the most sparkling sally in its last: "We declare that Andrew Johnson's public career—Andrew Johnson as a member of the Legislature of his State, as Representative in Congress, as Governor, as Senator of the United States, as Chief Magistrate of the Union, in his origin and exaltation—in the spotless integrity of his life, in his fidelity to the Constitution, in the moderation and perfect fidelity of his Presidential career—more perfectly typifies and illustrates the Government of the Constitution and the character of a true American statesman than any other man living."

We learn from Umatilla county from several sources that Smith's majority in that county cannot possibly exceed one hundred. Two years ago Kelly had two hundred and forty-seven majority in Umatilla, two-thirds of which was obtained by the most fraudulent means. That game will not win this year.

PRECINCT NOMINATIONS.—Pursuant to a call of the County Committee, made May 1st, for the purpose of nominating precinct officers, the North Portland delegation met at the Union Club Room and having been called to order by the Chairman R. Weeks, Mr. Levi Anderson was by acclamation declared the nominee for Justice of the Peace for Washington Precinct. Mr. Philip Saunders was nominated for Constable in said precinct.

[illegible] — CITY ITEMS.—The subjoined items are from the Enterprise of Saturday: The new steamer of the P. T. Co., now about to receive her machinery, has been [illegible] of the Albany. We understand that the ladies of Albany are busy preparing her colors, as a present to be made on her arrival at that pleasant city, ready for business.—Rev. Father O'Dillon of this place contemplates leaving for the East soon, on account of his health.—The Dayton is now making regular trips on the Tualatin, between Hillsboro and Colfax, connecting at the latter place with cars of the Milling Company's road, and thence with the steamer of the same company on Oswego Lake, and with teams and then with boats of the P. T. Co., for Portland. Freight has to be handled ten times [illegible], and yet it is said to be a better way to [illegible] than by teams over the divide, between [illegible] Portland and the Plains.—On Thursday evening last Miss Emma Smith, daughter of Mrs. W. J. Caldwell of this city, came very near losing her life by burning. A lighted candle had been left on a table by her, when she retired, [illegible] the bed clothes, and spread rap[illegible] [illegible] means of egress were nearly [illegible], but the door was broken in, and she was rescued. [illegible] to the room, was considerable.—[illegible] a large number of the Union voters of [illegible] Oregon City met at the Court House at 7½ o'clock last [illegible]. The convention was called to order, and W. [illegible] chosen to preside. Messrs. Frederick W. Beck [illegible] Wade were Secretaries. The following ticket was placed in nomination: For Mayor, [illegible]; for Recorder, John R. Bacon; for [illegible] A. P. Apperson, James W. Chase, William C. [illegible] Thompson, George A. Pease, J. W. [illegible] and W. J. Caldwell; for Treasurer, Frederick [illegible]; for City Attorney, Benton Killin; for Marshal, [illegible]; for Street Commissioner, Wm [illegible]; School Superintendent, Dr. F. Barclay.—A series of lectures, exposing spiritualism, by Rev. Mr. Foster, will be commenced in this city at the Court House on Monday evening next.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.—The United States District Court, J[illegible] presiding, will [illegible] this morning. The following are the grand jurors summoned: R. J. Ladd, [illegible] McDonald, W. A. Starkweather, F. T. [illegible] Palmer, Henry Hewitt, George E. Getz[illegible], J. W. [illegible]wood, G. S. Knight, J. Harris, D. John[illegible], [illegible] M. R. Cox, J. F. Miller, J. Holman, [illegible] W. Frye, D. F. Harrington, F. A. Clark, [illegible] J. Stephenson, J. Harlow, J. F. Shartle. The [illegible] are the petit jurors: W. H. Caterlin, [illegible] W. Forrest, J. H. Riley, S. Brown, J. [illegible] Hembree, J. M. Kelty, E. Randall, W. [illegible] R. Garey, R. P. Bird, W. Robertson, W. [illegible] Brown, J. G. Wright, J. C. Kingler, [illegible] A. L. Johnson, J. M. Gilman, S. M. [illegible], R. H. Caldwell, W. M. Blain.

The [illegible] are the cases docketed for trial:
United States vs. A. S. Mercer, et al.
United States vs. Charles Granger.
United States vs. half cask brandy.
United States vs. two half casks of brandy.
United States vs. Steamship Fideliter.
[illegible] Haynes vs. bark Live Yankee.
United States vs. Dorville Brown.

ARRIVAL OF [illegible].—The bark Rainier, W. O. Hayden, Master, arrived at this port at 9 o'clock Saturday [illegible]. The following is from the master's memoranda: Left Honolulu April 3d; first part of the [illegible], light [illegible] winds; April 13th in lat. 30 N., long. 152 W., ex[illegible] [illegible] gale from N. W. to N. E., with heavy cross sea, arrived off the bar on the 25th of April with heavy [illegible] gale; took pilot April 28th; arrived at Astoria, May 1st; arrived at Portland, May 2d at 9 P. M. Her freight consists of 2,755 kegs sugar, 102 bbls [illegible] and 360 bags coffee, to McCracken, Merrill & Co., [illegible] to Allen & Lewis, and 1 case ladies' hats, to [illegible] Frankman & Co. The Rainier is under charter to McCraken, Merrill & Co., to load hence for San [illegible], and will carry as part of her cargo 500,000 feet [illegible] the St. Helen's mills. She is the largest bark ever in the Willamette river, measuring 499 tons.—The brig Dolphin, Chas. H. Shindler, master, arrived [illegible] day night, eleven days from San Francisco, with a [illegible] of salt and general merchandise. She had a fair run to the [illegible] bar, lay off three days for a pilot, crossed the bar at 10 o'clock A. M. Friday. She is under charter to load with produce for San Francisco.

P[illegible] FOR PORTLAND.—The following is the list of [illegible] per steamship Continental, which sailed from San [illegible] for this port May 2d: Mrs White and [illegible], [illegible] Smith, Geo H [illegible], H James, Jno A [illegible], G B Calvert, J S Lowe, Geo Worth[illegible], M Heidner, W Stevens, Col Sum[illegible], [illegible] and wife, Mrs K[illegible], Mrs M Meyers, Miss [illegible], [illegible] wife and son, Sam Allen and wife, [illegible] and wife, J Devereux, M Dondlach, A [illegible], J Brown, Mrs [illegible], A Wright and wife, Col Friendly, [illegible], and 30 [illegible] in cabin, with 125 [illegible].

[illegible] RAILROAD.—Gov. Gibbs made a [illegible] on Friday, on the subject of railroads, [illegible] The following resolutions were unanimously [illegible]:

[illegible] That the thanks of this meeting be extended [illegible] Gibbs for his able and instructive address on the [illegible] of railroads.

Resolved, That Col. W. W. Chapman, of the city of [illegible], be invited to address the people of Yamhill [illegible] on the subject of railroads at his earliest convenience.

[illegible].—We have information from Vancouver, that Michael Welch, convicted of the murder of [illegible] at [illegible], last winter, was sentenced to be hanged on the 5th day of June next.—The [illegible] of Saturday says: "William Divine and [illegible] were sentenced to one and two years im[illegible] on Thursday, for complicity in the affray [illegible] in which Solomon Preble lost his life.—A Court Martial will convene at this post in a [illegible] the trial of Lieut. Demoulition.

[illegible] The following officers were installed in [illegible] Lodge No. 12, I. O. G. T., on Saturday eve[illegible]: Mr. James A. Waters, W. C. T.; Miss M. Bryant, W. V. T., Mr. Chas. S. Fit[illegible], W. [illegible], W. A. S.; Mrs. L. L. Williams, [illegible] L. D. Williams, W. F. S.; Mr. D. McKay, W. [illegible]; Miss M. A. Gilmore, W. D. M.; Miss Mary Berk[illegible], W. I. G.; Mr. J. N. Dolph, W. O. G.; Miss A. [illegible]; Miss Mary Lavony, W. L. H. S.; Mr. [illegible], [illegible] W. C. T.

[illegible] TIME.—On Saturday the stage came [illegible] the short [illegible] time between this city and [illegible]. Up to that time the Alert had [illegible] Oregon City, the coaches stopping [illegible], but hereafter, the stages will carry the mails clear [illegible] time in seven days, but in a short [illegible] expected, the [illegible] will beat that by twelve [illegible].

[illegible] Saturday, a race was run over the Union [illegible] mare "Legal Lender" against Shea's mare, for $200 a side—single dash of one mile. Legal [illegible] won the race and purse, 1:46, coming in far ahead of her competitor.

The foot race between Alex. Hamilton and Walter Kent, for $50 a side, was won by the latter.

[illegible] FOR VICTORIA.—The Geo. S. Wright sailed [illegible] morning, the 2d inst., for Victoria with eighteen cabin and seven steerage [illegible] and the following [illegible]: 3,000 qr sks flour, 105 boxes apples, 1 case [illegible], 75 gunnies ham, 58 gunnies bacon, 70 [illegible], 5 bbls dried apples, 10 cases [illegible] tomatoes, 36 pkgs eggs.

MAIL MATTERS.—Mr. Brooks has returned from Canyon City where he recently went, to look after mail and post[illegible]. We understand that he will recommend a tri-weekly or tri-weekly [illegible] on the route between Dalles and Canyon City, instead of the [illegible] weekly [illegible] will also recommend the [illegible].

[illegible] Though not [illegible] the exhibition, on Friday evening, by the [illegible] Sunday school, we are happy to [illegible] answered the expectations of the [illegible], both in the interest of the perfor[illegible] the financial results.

[illegible] VACATION.—On Friday, in the matter of the estate of Lucy Kearney, deceased; Thomas [illegible] was appointed administrator; letters to issue upon filing bond in the sum of $1,000. W. P. Burke, Wm. Grey and Robert Kinz were appointed appraisers of the [illegible].

[illegible] Saturday, per str [illegible] [illegible] bales oats, 25 boxes apples. Per steamer [illegible] sacks flour, 222 gunnies oats, 125 gun[illegible] apples, 6 packages [illegible], 1 [illegible]

[illegible].—The [illegible] for Justice of the [illegible] precinct, in this city is Mr. Levi [illegible] of "Levi Andrew," as the types had [illegible] morning.

[illegible].—The steamer Rainier, seized [illegible] of the law in regard to marine papers, ar[illegible] Friday night and was turned over to the [illegible] Marshal.

[illegible].—The May term of the county court, [illegible] presiding, will open this morning with [illegible] of business on the [illegible].

WOOL.—On Saturday, the steamer Cascade brought down 1,000 pounds wool—raised on the east side of the [illegible] mountains.

FORWARDING AND COMMISSION.—As will be seen by ad[illegible] in this morning's paper, the well known [illegible] of Umatilla City, have re[illegible] M. [illegible]. Frank [illegible] & Ham of [illegible] their entire stock of goods, together with [illegible], fire-proof [illegible]. Mr. [illegible] Foster & Co.'s long experience in the forwarding and commission business is a sure guar[illegible] that awaits them.

FURNITURE.—We call the attention of those in want of furniture, to the advertisement of Hurgren & Shindler. We have seen their warerooms, and must say that we have never seen a finer selection of furniture. Messrs. H. & S. have a well established business, buying their goods direct from the manufacturers. Parties [illegible] in their line, may rely upon honorable dealing and low prices.

[illegible] COURT.—Barman Bros' new busi[illegible] coats are the most elegant garments, in Portland. Their new [illegible] and pantaloons are worn by all fashionable men. Their entire made in their merchant tailoring estab[illegible] are now leading the fashions in Portland.

TEETH EXTRACTED
By Dr. Richardson's Apparatus, Lately Improved by Dr. Koehler, with Ether Spray.

WILLIAM KOEHLER,
DENTIST.

OFFICE AND RESIDENCE Southwest corner Front and Yamhill Streets, opposite E. J. Northrup & Co's Hardware Store.

Extracting Teeth by Dr. Richardson's apparatus, with Ether Spray, is local in its application, the tooth and surrounding parts only becoming insensible to pain. Those suffering from bad teeth can now have them removed free from pain and without the effects of inhaling chloroform, ether or nitrous oxyde (laughing gas.)

N. B.—To strangers I would say that a constantly increasing Dental Practice for the last five years in this city, will be a sufficient guarantee for them to receive a First Class and Finished Piece of Work. Numerous testimonials to the same can be given at the office.

A THRILLING INCIDENT

In the missionary life of Mrs. Ingalls in Burmah, is well told in the "Baptist Messenger" relating how she was sent for to visit one of the Budhist high priests, who had been nearly killed, and how, while in the most holy place in their temple, where none but the priests had ever before been admitted, she was permitted unrebuked to use for him the sacred vessels, which none but the high priest dare touch, and to even overturn and sit on one of their gods to rest, all through the magic influence of the Pain Killer, called by them the "God medicine," so successfully had she used it in curing their many diseases, some of them considered heretofore fatal in that climate, among which were cholera, liver complaint, dyspepsia, the bites of venomous reptiles, &c. This speaks volumes for the Pain Killer.—London Times.

Rev. J. E. Clough, Missionary at Ongole, Southern India, writes:—"We esteem your Pain Killer very highly for scorpion stings, cholera, &c., and cannot very well get along without it."

Rev. I. D. Colburn, Missionary at Tavoy, Burmah, writes, "I shall be happy to assist in extending a knowledge of a remedy so speedy and effectual." mid-awlm

Are you aware that the Premonitories of Consumption are Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Pains in the Side and Chest, Difficulties of Breathing, &c. If you permit these symptoms to run on, tubercles will be the result, and end in Consumption. Now if you want to cure these diseases, use ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM without delay. Consumptives should never give it up! and think there is no hope! until they have tried ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM!!! It has cured many cases that physicians pronounced incurable.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.

PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.

Prevents Fever and Ague and Bilious Remittent Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water, invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels;
Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.

REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element, no fiery excitant, but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

As a Genuine Tonic HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

SOLD EVERYWHERE.

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

The Indiana Rebel "Martyr" Sues the Military Commission that Tried him for $500,000 Damages

[From the Indianapolis Journal, March 19.]

Lambdin P Milligan the Indiana martyr, who so narrowly escaped from hanging is one of the inscrutable mysteries which eternity will be quite short enough to reveal satisfactory has just commenced a nice little game, which the cadaverous [illegible] Son of Liberty thinks may be made a trump card in the pending campaign. The [illegible] rebel has entered suit in the Huntington Common Pleas Court against the following gentlemen some of whose names will be remembered well in connection with a certain Military Commission, by whose sentence the plaintiff was condemned to be hung by the neck until made dead, dead, dead and may the Lord have mercy on your poor soul." The latter clause was appended by way of a charitable sarcasm. The defendants in the action are Jas R Slack, Henry Zumro, James M Bratton Wm A Bickel, Joseph Holt, Oliver P Morton Alvin P Hovey, Thomas J Lucas, Charles D Murray Benjamin J. Spooner, Richard P. DeHart, Henry L. Burnett, Ambrose A Stevens Ansel D Wass Thomas W Bennett, Reuben Williams, Albert Heath, Benjamin Pitman, Samuel Place, J T Frazer, Robert Gregory, James A. Dean, Wm Arnold, Wm R Hollway

In this complaint Mr Milligan sets forth at length the whole history of his arrest, trial, conviction, sentence, commutation and approval by Johnson, and the tedious history of his confinement in the Ohio Penitentiary We are not advised as to whether Lambdin informed the Court how many dishes he washed per diem in the prison kitchen, or the terrible hardships he underwent in being deprived of the light of the holy Gospel as was the case with Olds The charges are conspiracy, false imprisonment, and libel, and the damages are modestly laid at $500,000. This extreme degree of diffidence in assessing a proper money valuation upon his sufferings and outrages is to be regretted. In the case of Mr George Francis Train that gentleman started with $500,000, and it is safe to say that had he been put through as Lambdin was, his assessment would have been amply sufficient to liquidate the national debt The plaintiff will never know how much he has lost by this short sighted policy of putting his damages at such a ridiculous low figure It leaves the jury absolutely without any margin to come down on. The case is set for trial at the next term of the Huntington Common Pleas Court. Some of the defendants have been served to appear, while to the others it will be somewhat difficult for the Sheriff of Huntington to read the citation The Court will be well stocked with business, especially if the defendants shall elect to be tried separately.

Caste and Color

[From the S F Chronicle.]

Is there any meaner, more brutal, or more cruel prejudice than that which is based on caste and color? We do not know of any The spirit which judges human beings by such arbitrary standards as the shade of their complexions or the race to which they belong is unworthy of civilized men. The despicable creatures who minister to this hateful prejudice by low appeals to ignorance and passion, and who exhaust a shameful ingenuity in manufacturing wool-and shin-bone arguments, are a libel upon humanity. No matter what may be their pretensions to education and [illegible], they are no better than the brutes who find pleasure in setting bull dogs on unoffensive Chinamen. The prejudice of color is invariably strongest in the most vulgar and brutal minds. It is the very lowest and meanest white men who are the most bitter in their antipathy to "inferior races." The fact is, that color and race do not [illegible] enter into character. The moral [illegible] differences among them do not depend upon shades of complexion, or upon [illegible] degree of "kinkiness" in the [illegible] that in proportion as a nation or a community becomes civilized, just in that proportion are such physical characteristics ignored The black man, or the yellow man, or the copper-colored [illegible] by all Christian and highly civilized people, by his moral worth, his knowledge, his behavior, and not by the color of his skin Mr. McConnell's wretched shin bone arguments ought to make him an object of derision and contempt in all enlightened circles. There are hundreds of black men and yellow men in the United States who are in every respect Mr. McConnell's superiors. He [illegible] not hold his own for twenty minutes in a [illegible] with Fred Douglas or Charles Ray [illegible] of Ohio. He could not play "Hamlet" or [illegible] Aldridge, the negro actor, [illegible] And we do not believe that [illegible] with one-half the [illegible] actor. If we were to take [illegible] of the [illegible] negroes there named [illegible] the [illegible] Africa.

[illegible] STATES [illegible] of the [illegible] preliminary [illegible] the United States [illegible] Statistics [illegible] States, 3,445,831, a gain of 385,958 on the census of 1860; in five Middle States, 9,221,226, a gain of 963,055; thirteen Southern States, 9,446,709, a loss of 699,298; [illegible] Western and Pacific States, 11,869,000, a gain of 2,356,287; nine Territories, 405,000, a gain of 146,650. One of the most determined suicides on record is that of Charles [illegible], of New Orleans On the 19th ult. [illegible] something like a bomb [illegible] in his room, and waited [illegible]. His body was shockingly [illegible]

The [illegible] record the death in that city of a [illegible] named Jose Santereno, at the age of one hundred and thirteen. He was born in 1755, the year of the great earthquake, which destroyed a large portion of the Portuguese capital.

On some [illegible] it is customary to have a lock on the stove, to prevent the passengers from [illegible] the fire. A conductor, being asked why they locked the stove, replied that "it was to prevent the fire from going out."

TURBINE WATER WHEEL!

OF WHICH THE ABOVE IS AN ILLUSTRATION has FOUR SETS OF BUCKETS, AND USES THREE-FOURTHS OF THE WATER TWICE.

The old high priced, unequalled and unrivalled wheel has been now [illegible] by a fair working trial made by Mr H Kelly, at his saw mill, and the public can see what he says as to the capacity of the two wheels in the following testimonial over his own signature.

MR H. W. SHIPLEY—Sir: In reply to your inquiry as to how I like your Pacific Turbine Wheel, I have to say that I have used one and about three Leffel wheels—10, 13 and 15 inch diam. [illegible] When I substituted your 15 inch wheel for the 15-inch Leffel wheel, though [illegible] it [illegible] the machinery [illegible] of water per [illegible] more than the 15-inch Leffel. At your request I [illegible] your wheel [illegible] might be finished and then [illegible] the 15-inch Leffel that it gave no better power than yours while it used 80 cubic feet more water per minute After some [illegible] I replaced your wheel and am still using it with the most satisfactory results. I have subjected it to some severe tests. For [illegible] while running the circular saw in a log which [illegible] 15 inches, I [illegible] the [illegible] with a 9 inch knife, cutting from [illegible] to [illegible] fourth of an inch depth, [illegible] the speed After thorough trial of both wheels, I [illegible] find that your wheel with gates one-eighth of an inch open gives as much power as the Leffel with gates one-third open. At half gate, your wheel gives double the power of the Leffel at half gate At full gate, the power of yours exceeds that of the Leffel, by from ten to twelve per cent At quarter gate, the Leffel holds no comparison with yours at quarter gate

N. B. Mr. Shipley was not present at either of the trials of his wheel he being sick at the first, and absent from the State, at the second trial

Medical.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc, Skin Diseases ([illegible] years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self abuse This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes pain in the head, ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes; pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, feted breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon, stating case, symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and [illegible], who, with bogus sworn to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863 The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets, for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco Post Office Box 253.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 253 ON THE LETTER.

DR. J. C. YOUNG,

Medical and Surgical INSTITUTE

 CONSULTATION, IN ALL CASES, FREE

 CURES GUARANTEED, OR NO PAY REQUIRED.

 IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED the UTMOST SECRESY MAINTAINED.

The above rules, [illegible] by Dr. J. C. Young in 1850, and which have done so [illegible] to secure the reputation of the Institute, are still adhered to, affording those in need of medical aid, the certainty of cure and the utmost confidence.

There is nothing of so [illegible] importance to the sick [illegible] know where to find a physician whose skill and [illegible] give assurance of proper [illegible] delicate treatment. The Doctor would respectfully call the attention of those of both [illegible] who are suffering or in [illegible] to, the invariable success [illegible] has marked the career of the Institute in the seventeen years of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this connection to enumerate all the complaints treated at the Institute, but the Doctor feels it his duty to call especial attention to that terrible scourge,

SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

That is sapping with its insidiousness the very life of its victims; in the treatment and cure of which the Institute has earned so enviable a reputation.

READ! READ!

I am aware that by dwelling upon so [illegible] subject as the decay of manly vigor [illegible] the [illegible] vital principle of life, the ignorant may [illegible] tive, but the desire to point out to [illegible] guish and decay, the true [illegible] of their great [illegible] to be [illegible] trended the terrible dis[illegible] of Seminal W[illegible] one but the practical [illegible] who [illegible] treatment can tell; but its [illegible] the most inexperienced by noting the [illegible] toms, Weakness of the back and limbs; [illegible] feelings, loss of muscular power, [illegible] cold feet or hands, [illegible] of con[illegible] short [illegible] sion to society, confusion of the [illegible] nightly emissions; colorless; slight [illegible] least excitement; trembling; palpitation of the [illegible] regular appetite, variable temper, etc.

YOUNG MAN, if you experience any of the [illegible] symptoms enumerated [illegible] present is the golden moment in which you may [illegible] health and happiness. You may feel strong now [illegible] you have ever practiced the vice of self [illegible] [illegible] you have the seeds of weak[illegible] system, and their [illegible] will [illegible] or later, dash the fair edifice of your strength [illegible] ground, leaving you a helpless, abject [illegible] [illegible] that declares itself at once, [illegible] est danger, for while the patient is [illegible] affection of the Heart, Lungs, Brain, or [illegible] tions, he sinks into a general debility that [illegible] to the list of the victims of the terrible [illegible] Weakness.

See in the [illegible] form and [illegible] victim of the [illegible] vice! Mark the [illegible] destructive complaint in the hollow cheek and [illegible] Drowsiness [illegible] is one of the [illegible] first it is easily shaken off, but it [illegible] great disinclination to [illegible] mind becomes [illegible] and restless nights days of [illegible]

It is the nature of the complaint to [illegible] changes that leave the poor [illegible] but little hope [illegible] covery. In a [illegible] it may [illegible] hope, and blast your [illegible]

Marriage is sought by a natural [illegible] as a hope of [illegible] lief This is an error of the first [illegible] tent, unprepared for the exigencies of the [illegible] denly fails, and he finds [illegible] from which there is but the [illegible] hope of [illegible] Or if the marriage should result in offspring [illegible] ny, distorted, decrepid, and degenerate. This [illegible] ble to both sexes, whether [illegible] times of life.

Do not delay if you feel any of the [illegible] rible complaint, or if your [illegible] to them, but by instant application [illegible] only hope of health and happiness. The [illegible] mercury or other deleterious drugs [illegible] time, always guaranteed, and full and [illegible] stored.

The afflicted are assured of every [illegible]

PERSONS AFFLICTED WITH [illegible] [illegible]ERNAL.

During the seventeen years since the [illegible] the Institute, the number of cases of [illegible] been treated show a record [illegible] in the world, and the success [illegible] the course of treatment,

Without Mercury or other [illegible]

[illegible]

Shows [illegible] the use of those [illegible] called for, but actually [illegible] established medical principle that [illegible] by entering the blood, ruin the [illegible] life.

The D[illegible] and finds no difficulty in curing those of [illegible] without submitting the patient to such [illegible] draw upon him the slightest [illegible] neglect his business, whether in-doors or [illegible] diet need not be changed. Cures always [illegible] no pay required.
